Experience

Although I was watching the movie, I understood the plot first,
and then back to the content in the book.

The words and sentences are not too difficult, but some simple descriptions are presented in different ways.

I thought that is great.

Thank you for listening.
